BIOGRAPHY

OF THE LATE OBAAPAYIN JULIANA OFORIWAA AMAGYEI A.KA (ANTE)

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day and not only me but also to all who have longed for His appearing." (2 Timothy 4:7-8)

EARLY LIFE

Obaapanyin Juliana Oforiwaa Amagyei, affectionately called Ante Foriwaa, was born at Twapease, a suburb of Asuom, on 14th November 1941. She was the third of seven children born to the late Nana Amagyei Peprah, then chief of Twapease, and Obaapanyin Felicia Nyarkoa, a royal mother of Asona Mintah. She began her primary education at Twapease. After the death of her father, her brother Nana Marfo, also known as Mintahene, took her to Anyinam, where she stayed for a short while before rejoining her mother at Asuom.

There, she continued her education at Asuom Presbyterian Middle School, where she developed a deep love for learning and for God's Word. She faithfully represented Asuom Presbyterian Church in Bible quizzes, winning many prizes including Bibles and hymn books through her dedication and knowledge of the scriptures.

After school, she began her apprenticeship as a seamstress. It was during this apprenticeship that she met her beloved husband, Nana Obeng Adjei III (Abompe Hene), then known as Mr. J.Y. Obeng, popularly known as Papa Yaw Obeng.

WORK & BUSINESS

The couple moved to Ashanti Akyem Dampong, where her husband learned to drive. It was there that they welcomed their first two children, Mrs. Tina Oppong and Mr. Maxwell Obeng Boapeah. They later returned to Asuom once her husband had completed his training and gone on to become a transport owner and a chief. God blessed their marriage with five wonderful children.

Through hard work, integrity, and perseverance, Ante Foriwaa built a reputation as a dependable and industrious businesswoman. She would load a full truck of foodstuffs to sell in Lomé, then return with a full truck of clothes to distribute at Makola, taking a portion of them to Asuom to sell as well. She later extended her trade by sending trucks of foodstuffs to Tema.

Although her husband was a wealthy man, she worked hard in her own right to support the family and to ensure they always had a better life. Her home was known for its generosity — there was always food for anyone who came by, even late at night. She always made sure everyone ate until they were full, including the many young men learning to drive under her husband tutelage. She was also a dedicated farmer.

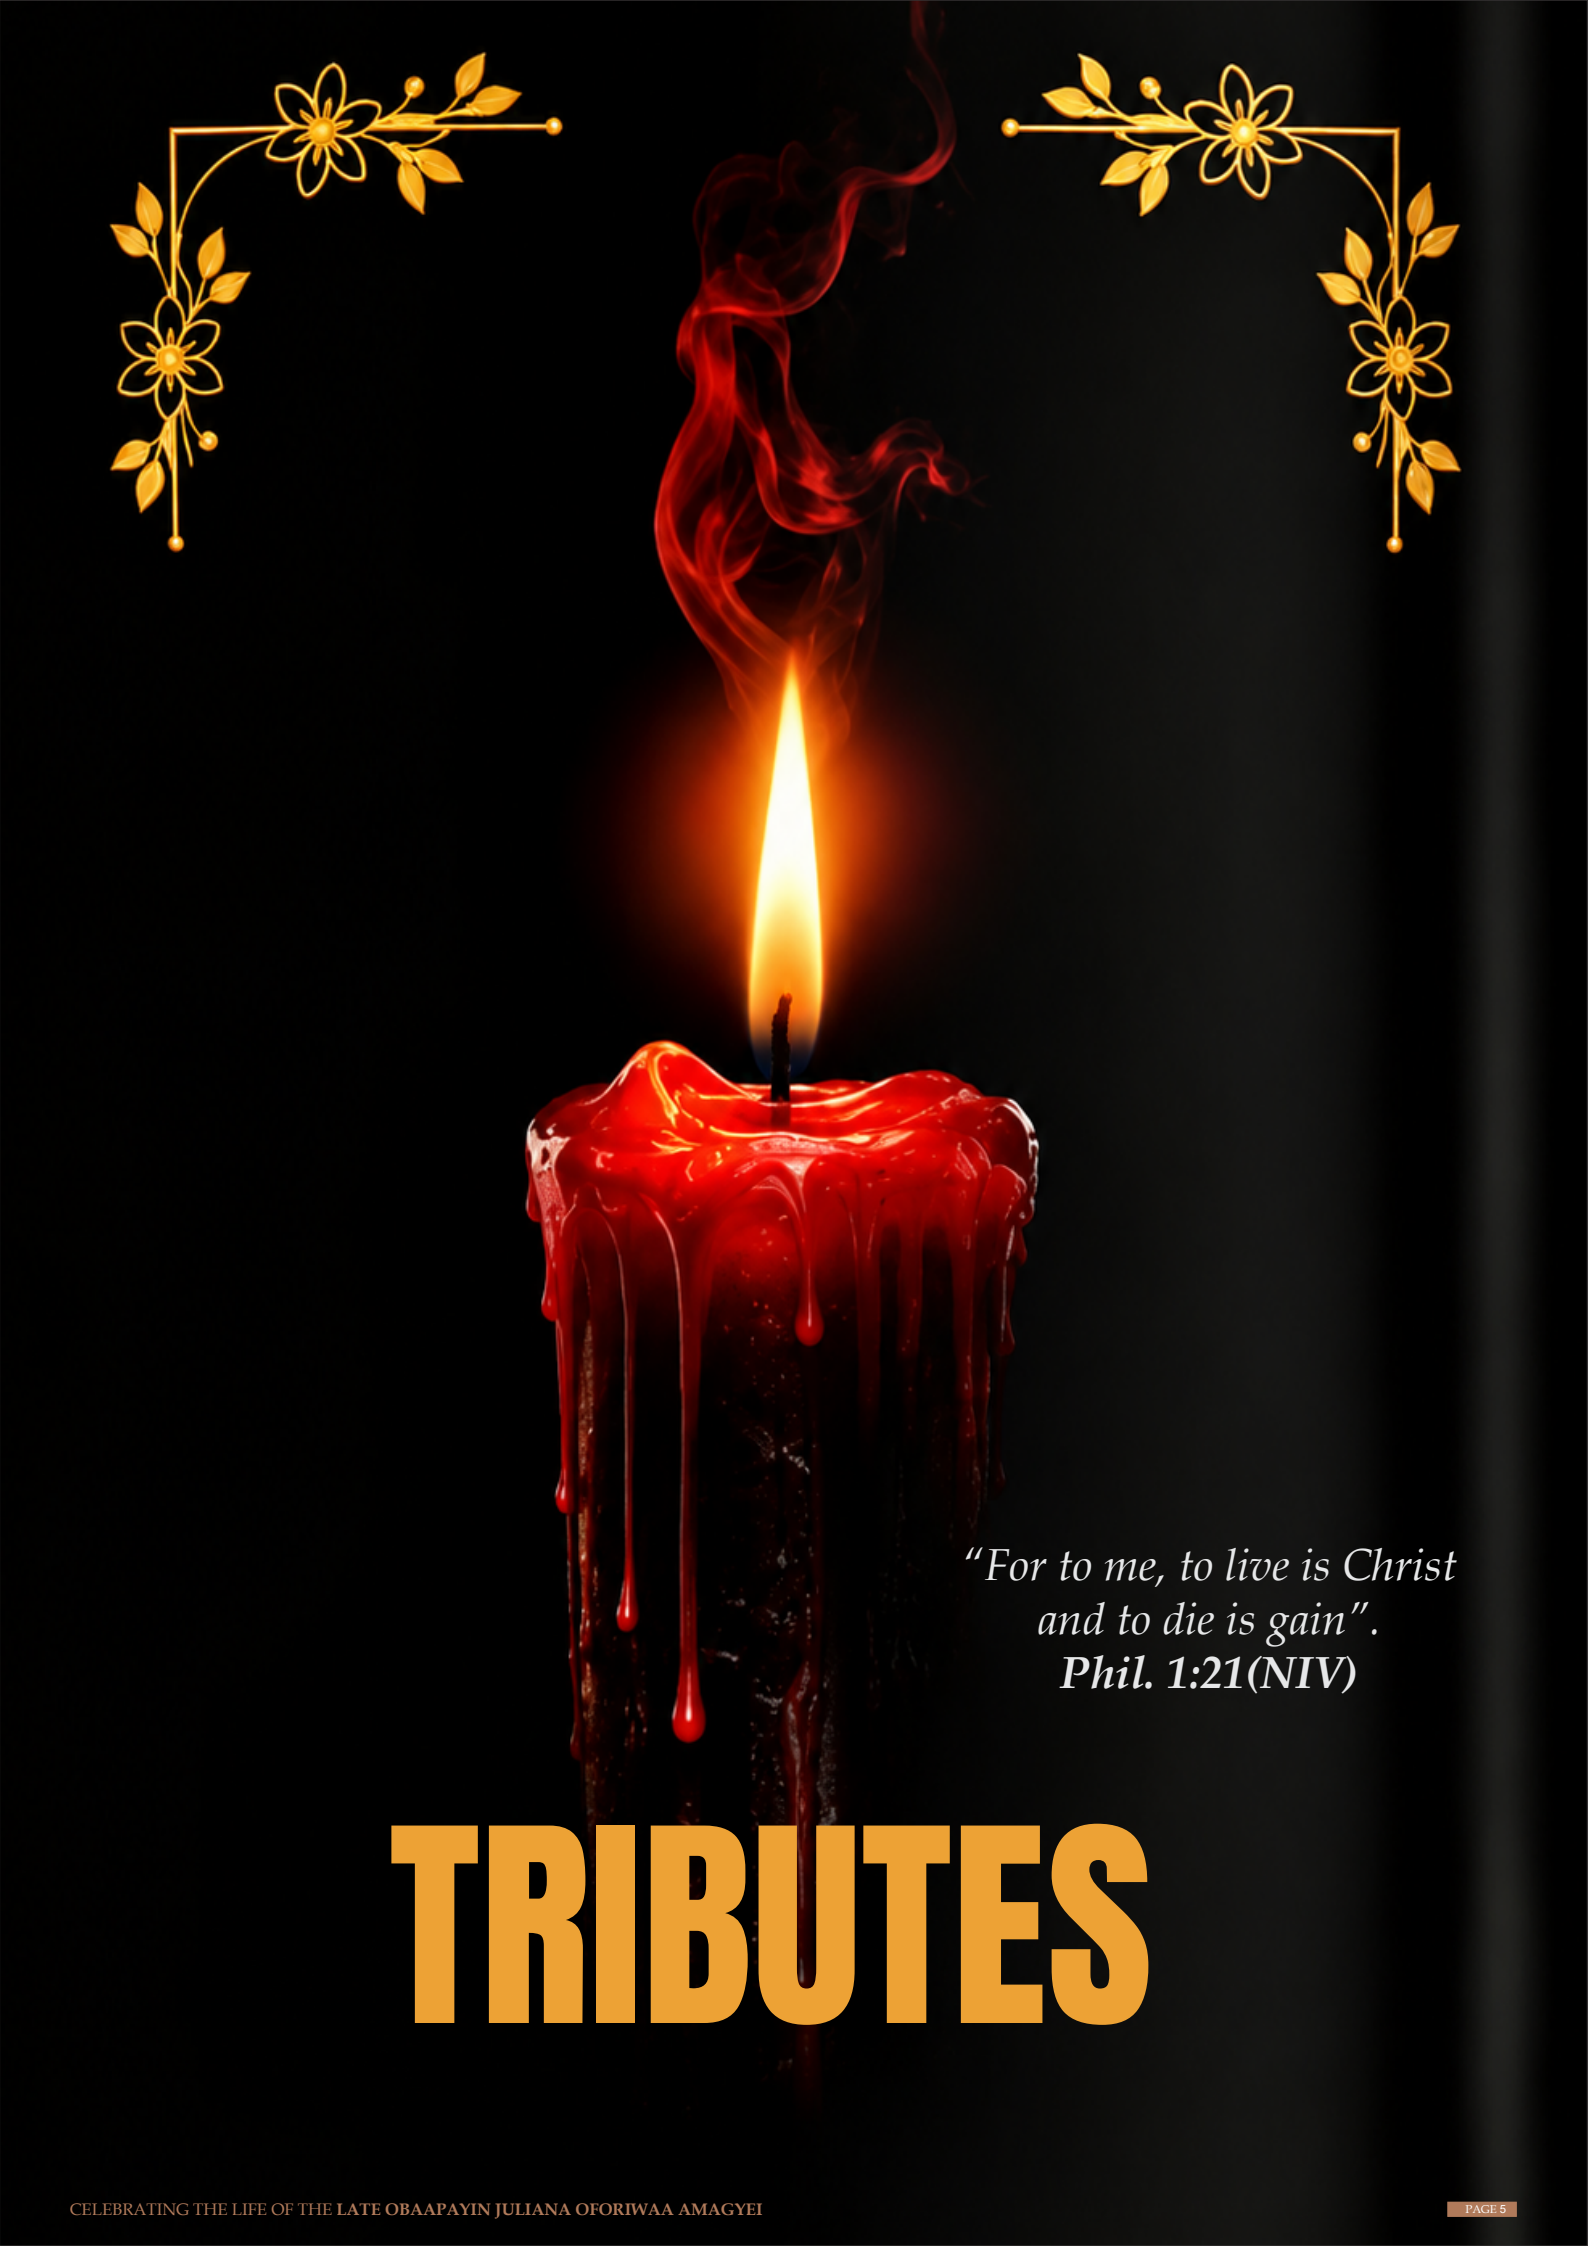
Above all, she never left her Maker. She was a devoted member of Asuom Presbyterian Church and served with love and dedication throughout her life. She was an active member of the church choir, the singing band, and the ushering team, and she encouraged her own children to take part in church activities and to grow in their faith.

She generously opened her home to the Presbyterian members living in Beposo for their daily morning devotion meetings, always ready to serve both the church and the community. Her strong faith, commitment, and kindness made her a true pillar of Asuom Presbyterian Church. She loved to read her Bible in quiet moments and through her kindness, she touched many lives.

In 2021, she survived a major surgery and remained strong and healthy until late 2025, when her illness became severe. On the fateful night of Saturday, 13th December 2025, at St. Dominics Hospital, Akwatia, she went home to be with her Maker.

Ante, you will always be remembered in our lives and in our community. We remain grateful to God for the gift of your life and your legacy lives on in the family forever.

Fare thee well, Ante.
We say Ayekoo .



"For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain".
Phil. 1:21(NIV)

TRIBUTES

BY CHILDREN

"Now we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands."
(2 Corinthians 5:1)

Ante, now that we have children of our own, we truly appreciate the hard work, perseverance, and sacrifices you invested in raising your five children. Despite the many challenges, you fought to secure a better future for us. You corrected us when we went wrong and disciplined us when we misbehaved, always making sure we did the right thing.

We remember you saying, "If you go and get a boyfriend and get pregnant, I will buy you a head pan(apanpan) and tie your child with your school uniform." a saying that kept us cautious and mindful of our steps.

You showed no favoritism among us. Even when our cousins stayed with us, you loved and disciplined us all the same way, sharing the chores equally among us.

We are serving Christ today because of you. You never left us behind when you went to church, not even for morning devotions. Every evening, you chased us to church with a cane, making sure we never wandered to "dance" or disco instead.

You did not simply send us to church but you made sure we were active in the groups; as children, we belonged to the Women's Class, the Y.P.G., and the choir. You would come into our room at night while we slept to ask if we had said our prayers.

At the time, we thought you were disturbing our sleep, not realizing you were giving us the best foundation for life. Now, we understand, and we are grateful. Because of you, our roots in Christ grew deeper, and we remain faithful to God to this day. We are still serving Christ because of you.

Even at our old age, you never stopped sending us money from the proceeds of your cocoa farm, no matter how small the harvest was. That was who you were always giving, always thinking of us.

Our hearts felt so heavy as we sat to write your tribute. I always took you to the hospital and brought you back, until that fateful Thursday when I came for you as usual, not knowing that this time, you would not return with us. It hurt so much watching you depart from us; you had suffered so much.

Ante, if it were money, we would have given everything to save you, but your Maker had called you, and who are we to say no. He knows best.

Sweet mother, we are proud of you, because your prayers have brought us this far. Rest well with your Maker.

Ante, you were a woman like no other. No words can truly capture who you were. Your kindness to everyone was overwhelming. You served your generation well this is not merely something we say, it is who you truly were.

Ayekoo, Ante.
Rest well in the bosom of your Maker.
We love you.
fare thee well. Amen.

TRIBUTE

BY GRANDCHILDREN

"Then I heard a voice from heaven say, 'Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on. 'Yes,' says the Spirit, 'they will rest from their labour, for their deeds will follow them."
Revelation 14:13

"You people should come and pick me up, the anthill is gone," she once said, the day the anthill she always used to find her way to our house was cleared away. What a funny woman you were!

You were more than a grandmother to us; you were a mother, a guide, and a source of unconditional love who played a special role in raising us. The memories we shared with you are countless, and putting them all into words would fill an entire book. These are just a few of the precious memories we hold close to our hearts and will cherish forever..

Some people leave behind memories; our grandmother left behind a feeling of home. She had a special way of bringing everyone together, and nothing showed her love more than the meals she cooked and the hymns she sang. She was our wisest counselor too. She listened without judging and spoke with a quiet wisdom that always calmed the storm. She taught us to be kind and to look after one another.

Grandma did not only feed our minds; she poured her whole heart into her kitchen. To say she was a good cook is an understatement cooking was her love language. Her kitchen was her sanctuary, and every meal was a gift. Her jollof rice and fufu were the best, but more than the food itself, it was the love in every dish that made us feel so cared for. Nobody not just food; it was a celebration, one that made every ordinary day feel special. As she cooked, she would sing the old Presbyterian hymns, and her voice calmed every soul within hearing. Grandma always had a song for every moment. Every morning, whilst living with on her usual visits, we woke up to the sound of her singing.

We will never forget the Christmas she visited us in Accra, and we took her out to eat pizza. She said, she would tell all of Asuom that her grandchildren took her to eat thick pancake called "peeza." Every time we came home to visit her, she welcomed us with the same warm embrace, no matter how many years had passed. She was excited to be part of everything we did, simply happy to be with us, and we were just as happy to be with her.

We also saw how deeply she loved the Lord. Her Christian life was woven into everything she did, from the hymns she sang over her cooking pots to the Bible she read every night under the light of her small porch. We smile now, remembering her quiet laughter and her warm welcome. We remember how happy she was when we came to spend her last birthday with her.

Though we miss her deeply, her love and spirit will always live on in our hearts. Grandma, thank you for your endless love, your beautiful music, and the precious memories you gave us.

Your love continues to hold us together, and the lessons of your life will stay with us forever.

Continue resting in the Lord's bosom. Damirifa due, Grandma. Rest in perfect peace. You are deeply missed.

TRIBUTE

BY GREAT GRAND-CHILDREN

For our Great-Grandma, Ante.

You were the heartbeat of our family, Great-Grandmother. Although our time with you may have been short, the love you gave us and the values you instilled in us will forever remain a part of who we are. We will always remember your gentle voice, your patience, and you're loving and caring heart.
Through your life and the way, you cared for us, you taught us to cherish our roots, take pride in our heritage, and keep our faith in God.

We will never forget how you cared for us, even bathing us when we were just babies. Those tender moments are precious memories that we will always hold close to our hearts. Through your love, you gave us a sense of belonging and showed us what true love means love that is gentle, selfless, patient, and unwavering.

Though we miss your presence dearly, your love continues to live on in us. We see your influence in the way we live, the way we care for others, and the love we share with one another.

Rest peacefully, our beloved Great-Grandmother. Though you are no longer with us, you will forever remain in our hearts, and your love will continue to guide us throughout our lives.

We love you, we honour you, we will not forget you.
Fare thee well!!!

TRIBUTE

BY IN-LAWS

"For me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain."
Philippians 1:21

Mom, you became our mother on the day we married your children. We simply want to thank you for all that you did. You raised the wonderful people we now share our lives with. You were their loving mother first, and through you, we were given caring partners for life.

Standing here today is not easy. From the moment we joined this family, you made us feel welcome. You treated us with kindness, respect, and love, and we will always be grateful for that. You were more than a mother-in-law to us; you became family in every sense of the word.

Your warmth, your smile, and the love you had for your family will always stay with us. The memories we shared will always be cherished. While our hearts are heavy to say goodbye, we thank you for everything.

We say Ayekoo. We deeply appreciate all you did for us.
Rest peacefully, Mom. You will always be loved, always missed, and never forgotten.

Fare thee well, Ante.

TRIBUTE

BY THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH -GRACE CONGREGATION ASUOM

With hearts filled with sorrow, yet with gratitude to Almighty God for the life of our dear mother and sister, Obaa Panin Juliana Oforiwaa Amagyei, the Presbyterian Church pays this tribute in her loving memory.

Obaa Panin Juliana Oforiwaa Amagyei was a staunch and committed member of the Presbyterian Church. Her love for God and dedication to the work of the church were evident throughout her years of fellowship. She was not merely a member by name; she actively participated in the spiritual and communal life of the church. One of the remarkable contributions she made to the church was her willingness to dedicate her house for the hosting of morning devotions. By opening her home for this important spiritual activity, she provided a place where members could gather in the presence of God, pray together, study His Word, and strengthen their faith. Her home became a place of fellowship, prayer, and spiritual encouragement.

Obaa Panin Juliana was also an active member of the Bible Studies and Prayer Group. She valued the Word of God and understood the importance of prayer in the life of every Christian. Her participation in Bible studies and prayer meetings demonstrated her desire to grow spiritually and to encourage others in their walk with God.
As a faithful Christian and responsible member of the church, she paid her tithe accordingly and faithfully fulfilled her financial obligations and other contributions to the church. Her commitment to giving was a reflection of her understanding that everything we have comes from God and that supporting the work of God is part of our Christian responsibility.

Obaa Panin Juliana will be remembered for her faithfulness, humility, generosity, commitment, and love for the church. Her service may sometimes have been quiet and without public recognition, but its impact was meaningful and lasting.
Today, we deeply mourn her passing. The church has lost a faithful member, the Bible Studies and Prayer Group has lost a committed participant, and the family has lost a beloved mother and grandmother. Nevertheless, we give thanks to God for the privilege of knowing and fellow shipping with her.
To the bereaved family, we extend our heartfelt condolences. May the Almighty God comfort and strengthen you during this difficult period.

TRIBUTE CON'T

BY THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH -GRACE CONGREGATION ASUOM

. May the memories of her love, faith, and service continue to inspire you and bring comfort to your hearts.

We take comfort in the words of Scripture:
"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on. Yes, says the Spirit, they will rest from their labours, for their deeds will follow them." — Revelation 14:13

Dear Obaa Panin Juliana Oforiwaa Amagyei, your earthly journey has ended, but the legacy of your faith, service, generosity, and commitment to God's work will remain with us.
Rest peacefully in the bosom of the Lord.
